The Disinformation Company was founded in 1997 and has been pushing the boundaries of news and opinion in a variety of media ever since.

- The Disinformation website at www.disinfo.com has been a leading source of online news and information on alternative topics since it launched in 1996.

- The Disinfo Nation television series broke new ground during two full seasons airing on the UK’s Channel 4 network in 2001 and 2002. Wired said it “makes Jackass look tame” and the Los Angeles Times described it as “a punk rock 60 Minutes.”

- There are more than 70 Disinformation books in print and the thriving publishing division of the company continues to publish new books by bestselling authors including Jim Marrs, Graham Hancock, Russ Kick and Robert Bauval.

- The Disinformation Company’s home entertainment division, launched in 2003, has released more than 50 films including bestselling documentaries such as Outfoxed: Rupert Murdoch’s War On Journalism, 2012: Science Or Superstition, Da Vinci Code Decoded, Wal-Mart: The High Cost of Low Price and Endgame: Blueprint for Human Enslavement.

In 2009 we are pleased to expand our home entertainment line into select narrative feature films with the release of a new film by one of Russia’s most acclaimed directors, Alexey Balabanov. Jeanette Catsoulis, of the New York Times, described it as, “Art house meets grind house in Alexey Balabanov’s morbidly compelling thriller set in the Soviet Union.” In a Wall Street Journal interview, Alexey Balabanov spoke of Cargo 200 in the following terms: “I show what filth we lived in. Society was sick from 1917 onwards.”

Similarly, we are very proud to be publishing Jim Marrs’ first novel, The Sisterhood of the Rose. Jim has achieved huge success in the non-fiction arena with bestsellers including Rule By Secrecy, Alien Agenda and The Rise of the Fourth Reich. His fiction debut also marks the first in what we hope will be a successful new line of fiction from Disinformation.

We hope you’ll enjoy all of our new books and films in 2009 and beyond. This year you will be able to find many of them not only at your usual favorite stores but also in electronic form as downloads at the leading e-stores including iTunes and Amazon.com. We welcome your feedback via our website: www.disinfo.com.

Countless websites, magazine articles and newspaper headlines debate its meaning, with enthusiasts in two camps: those forecasting apocalypse—the end of time—and those who see a coming renewal, a rebirth of consciousness. Adding fuel to the debate, some scientists see the increasing number of natural disasters in recent years as evidence of a catastrophic climax of events in 2012. How much of what we're hearing is science and how much is superstition?

Once past the gatekeepers, the carnival barkers and the marketing hype, one finds that the fundamental concepts revolving around 2012 are among the most vital in existence. The 2012 meme boils down to the mysterious past, present and future of the Earth and of every being upon it. It offers perspectives on how humanity chooses to relate to itself, to the Earth and to the Cosmos. How do we measure time, how do human beings conceive of history and of personal identity? What are our values, ideals and our faiths?

Uniquely among a vast array of 2012-related literature, Alexandra Bruce sorts through the many and varied theories about what the mythic date will bring, allowing the reader to distinguish what is vital from what she terms “mythomania” in a bewildering world of 2012 products. Ms. Bruce surveys the leading researchers, writers and scientists in the field, who tell us exactly what this date means to them, why it's important, and what we should expect.

ALEX JONES: THE ANSWER TO 1984 IS 1776

Alex Jones

OCTOBER 2009 • Hardcover • 6 x 9 • 288 pages • Current Affairs

If you've never heard of Alex Jones, then you've been missing out on one of the most dynamic, hard-hitting talk radio hosts on the planet.

For decades, Americans have been aware that the government withholds pertinent information that affects their lives. While the rigors of the average workday leave Americans defenseless against government cover-ups, mass media red herrings, and corporate scandals, Alex Jones sorts through the corruption with eager devotion. He uncovers clear and decisive information that must be heard. Jones's voice spreads like wildfire, developing legions of loyal listeners and readers.

While millions of people listen to his radio broadcasts and watch his films, this is Alex's first book. It's time to stand up against tyranny; it's time to give the power to the people. This is an information war and Alex Jones intends to win!

Featured on Good Morning America, 20/20 Downtown, 60 Minutes, The Discovery Channel, A&E, Court TV and more, Jones appears on multiple stations across the country and has been called, "an absolutely riveting television presence" by Patrick Beech of the Austin-American Statesman. Mike Kelley, also of the Austin-American Statesman, said of Mr. Jones, "on television, he exudes so much energy that a viewer might almost expect bits of flesh to start flying from the screen."
THE SISTERHOOD OF THE ROSE
Jim Marrs

NOVEMBER 2009 • Hardcover • 6 x 9 • 400 pages • Historical Fiction

$24.95  ISBN: 978-1-934708-29-3  RIGHTS: WORLD

Late in World War II, Adolf Hitler is about to achieve his greatest victory: the capture of Solomon’s Treasure, the world’s most sacred treasure trove, representing both gold and precious gems as well as ancient knowledge. He believes it will guarantee his dream of a 1,000-year Reich.

Can Giselle Tchaikovsky, a young American woman who achieved fame as a teenage ballet dancer in the 1930s, stop Hitler’s dream of world conquest? Can the secret sisterhood she creates do anything against the Nazi juggernaut of men and machines? Will the sisterhood bring about a resurgence of the feminine goddess aspect of humanity in time to spare the world this madman’s holocaust?

Jim Marrs presents an edgy combination of fact and fiction in this wide-reaching story of ancient secrets uncovered in the midst of war. It’s a tale of love and war, ancient mysteries and the struggle to balance the human soul.

The first novel from Marrs, this book follows his New York Times bestseller The Rise of the Fourth Reich. He uses his factual research into the Nazis’ fascination with the occult and their search for iconic treasures as a basis for this novel.

A native of Fort Worth, Texas, Jim Marrs has worked as an investigative reporter for several newspapers, including the Fort Worth Star-Telegram. Marrs’ in-depth investigation of UFOs, Alien Agenda, is the bestselling UFO book ever; Crossfire: The Plot That Killed Kennedy was a New York Times bestseller, as was Rule By Secrecy. Disinformation previously published his books The Terror Conspiracy (p.25) and Above Top Secret (p.21)
Why Do You Kill? The Untold Story of the Iraqi Resistance

Jürgen Todenhöfer

MARCH 2009 • Paperback • 5-1/2 x 8-1/4 • 224 pages • Current Affairs

Why Do You Kill? takes readers inside the Iraqi resistance, explaining why its members are not only fighting against American troops, but also against Al-Qaeda terrorists and the foreign-backed private militias of Iraq’s own politicians.

A genuine “unembedded” reporter, author Jürgen Todenhöfer observed what’s really going on in Iraq without the knowledge or approval of the U.S. military. This is the true story of the Iraqi resistance that has not previously been reported in the West.

His dramatic firsthand account reveals the fundamental differences between “resistance fighters” and “terrorists” that the mainstream media fails to recognize, and describes—in harrowing detail—the full impact of the U.S. invasions of Afghanistan and Iraq on daily life in the Muslim world.

In a powerful afterword, Todenhöfer lays bare the doomed “war on terror” and offers a prescription for peace in the form of ten personal insights that our political and cultural leaders need to recognize. These important ideas lay the foundation for a just and lasting peace between the Western and Muslim worlds.

Jürgen Todenhöfer was a member of the German parliament for 18 years and spokesman for the CDU/CSU on development aid and arms control. For 50 years he has traveled extensively in the Middle East and has written two bestsellers about the wars in Afghanistan and Iraq. He is donating all royalties from sales of this book to finance medical aid for Iraqi refugee children and an Israeli-Palestinian reconciliation project in the Middle East.
NEW VIDEO
 Alan Moore—writer, artist and performer—is the world’s most critically acclaimed and widely admired creator of comic books and graphic novels.

In The Mindscape of Alan Moore we see a portrait of the artist as contemporary shaman, someone with the power to transform consciousness by means of manipulating language, symbols and images.

The film leads the audience through Moore’s world with the writer himself as guide, beginning with his childhood background, following the evolution of his career as he transformed the comics medium, through to his immersion in a magical worldview where science, spirituality and society are part of the same universe.

EXTRAS:
• “Making of” featurette
• Interviews with director, composer and special make-up FX artist
• Selected scene analysis with director’s commentary
• Introduction to Alan Moore’s work by Paul Gravett
• Interviews with Melinda Gebbie (Lost Girls), Dave Gibbons (Watchmen), David Lloyd (V For Vendetta), Kevin O’Neill (League of Extraordinary Gentlemen) and Jose Villarubia (Promethia & Mirror of Love)
December 21, 2012: the end date of the sophisticated Long Count Calendar created by the ancient Maya in Central America. Countless books and websites, magazine articles and newspaper headlines debate its meaning, with enthusiasts in two camps: those forecasting apocalypse—the end of time—and those who see a coming renewal, a rebirth of consciousness.

Adding fuel to the debate, some scientists see the increasing number of natural disasters in recent years as evidence of a catastrophic climax of events in 2012. How much of what we’re hearing is science and how much is superstition? In this film the leading researchers, writers and scientists in the field tell us exactly what this date means to them, why it’s important, and what we should expect.

Obesity is fast becoming the single greatest killer of Americans, causing some experts to claim that we are on the cusp of an evolutionary disaster.

Former Surgeon General Richard Carmona says, “obesity is a terror within; it’s destroying our society from within and unless we do something about it, the magnitude of the dilemma will dwarf 9/11 or any other terrorist event that you can point out.”

The rates of obesity in the United States are climbing at unprecedented rates, with 75% of Americans projected to be overweight or obese within a decade.

Killer At Large uncovers this epidemic, examining the causes and suggesting ways to reverse this deadly trend.

Featured in the film are President Clinton, Ralph Nader, Senators Tom Harkin and Sam Brownback, Arnold Schwarzenegger, Governor Mike Huckabee, former Surgeon General Richard Carmona, Michael Pollan, Neil LaBute, Dr. Kelly Brownell (Supersize Me), Dr. Barry Popkin (Penn and Teller’s Bullshit) and many others.
Cargo 200 begins in 1984 with the introduction of two brothers: a Soviet army colonel, and the head of the Faculty of Scientific Communism at Leningrad University.

The university professor travels to visit his mother in a remote town. When his car brakes down, he stops at a rural farmhouse occupied by a husband, wife and their Vietnamese farm hand. The professor engages in a philosophical argument about the existence of God with the family patriarch, whose heated criticisms of official atheism are fueled by Utopian dreams and vodka distilled in the family barn.

Meanwhile, a young man and the daughter of a Soviet secretary of a regional party committee meet at a party. The couple decides to take a drive, and their destination is the rural farmhouse. Lurking in the shadows of the farmhouse is Zhurov, a character vaguely based on Russian serial killer Gennady Mikhasevich. Although Mikhasevich was simply a depraved lunatic, Balabanov presents Zhurov as an emblem of both human perversion and the manifest corruption of the Soviet government. Zhurov's appearance signals a series of loathsome events that form the rest of the film's narrative.

Even before being released Alexey Balabanov’s new film Cargo 200 attracted much attention in the press. The critics unanimously acknowledge Cargo 200 as one of the most significant films of the year, and many consider it to be Russian director Alexey Balabanov's (Brother, Of Freaks And Men) best film yet.
There are about 1,000 stone circles in the British Isles. If you include other megalithic monuments such as stone rows, long barrows, cairns, cists, standing stones and others, the number runs to tens of thousands. Yet most people can only name one: Stonehenge.

This DVD is a unique travelogue in which presenter Rupert Soskin and director Michael Bott discover the wealth that is Megalithic Britain.

More than two years in the making, this broadcast-standard film, written and presented by explorer and naturalist Soskin, takes you from the tip of Cornwall to the Scottish Isles on an unforgettable journey through the landscape of our ancient past.

224 MINUTES OF EXTRAS:
- Full length writer/director commentary
- Filmed interview with Rupert Soskin and Michael Bott
- Outtakes
- Extra footage
- Original pilot film
- Trailer
- “Making of” slide show (72 photos)
The feature documentary Rip! A Remix Manifesto explores the complexities of intellectual property in the era of peer-to-peer file sharing.

Web activist and filmmaker Brett Gaylor interviews key figures in the debate, including the film’s central protagonist, Gregg Gillis, the Pittsburgh biomedical engineer who moonlights as Girl Talk, a mash-up artist rearranging the pop charts’ DNA with his incongruous, entirely sample-based songs. But is Girl Talk a paragon of people power or the Pied Piper of piracy? A mash-up in itself, Rip! shatters the wall between users and producers, and challenges the thresholds of “fair use.”

Brett shares his raw footage at <opensourcecinema.org>, for anyone to remix. Rip!’s movie-as-mash-up method allowed these remixes to become an integral part of the film.

Featured in the film are Girl Talk, Lawrence Lessig, Cory Doctorow, Gilberto Gil, Marybeth Peters (U.S. Register of Copyrights), The Mouse Liberation Front and many others.

ADDITIONAL SCENES:
- Larry Lessig – Free Culture
- SXSW To Playgirl
- MC Marcelly
- Congressman Mike Doyle & Girl Talk
- Lawyer’s Reaction to Film
- The Joysticks

MASHUP FAVORITES:
- George Bush – Bushwacked (State of the Union Remix)
- Olio – Remix Culture Video
- Girl Talk – Ryan Edit
- Girl Talk – Rotoscoped
- Who is Girl Talk?
- Girl Talk Photo Montage
- Steamboat Mickey
In Search of the Great Beast 666 documents the chilling life, impulses and journey of Aleister Crowley (1875–1947), one of the most controversial and mysterious characters of the 20th Century, infamously known as “The Wickedest Man in the World.”

Voiced by acting legend Joss Ackland (Watership Down, Lethal Weapon 2, White Mischief and The Hunt For The Red October), this vivid portrayal unearths the barely believable and shocking facts surrounding this infamous occultist, spy, poet, dark magician, hedonist, writer and accomplished mountaineer. Was he related to President George Bush? How was he connected to Scientology, Jack the Ripper, Winston Churchill, Hitler and Ian Fleming (creator of James Bond)? How did this man come to know so many remarkable people and why did he become the subject of fascination for generations of world-class musical icons?

Under various guises and camouflaged by pseudonyms, Crowley travelled the world in his quest for supreme knowledge and ultimate power through the occult. He reveled in what some describe as acts of sexual decadence yet recognized by others as extreme depravity. His influence on modern culture is evident yet his reputation remains shrouded in a veil of infamy.

Through dramatically reconstructed period scenes, this biographical film explores the boundaries of the self appointed “Beast 666,” a man who is not only said to have inspired the free-love movement, but also through his literature is notorious for replacing the Ten Commandments with just one: “Do what thou wilt shall be the whole of the Law.”
In October 2004, just before the United States Presidential election, Michael Moore went on a 62-city tour through the undecided states to register and rally young would-be voters to vote for a change in our country.

Michael was joined on tour by some of the U.S.’s most politically involved musicians and artists, including Eddie Vedder, R.E.M., Tom Morello, Steve Earle, Roseanne Barr, Joan Baez, and Viggo Mortensen (to name a few). With visits to college campuses and other venues, this documentary showcases what the filmmaker calls “the birth of a new political generation.”

Although the election didn’t go Moore’s way, this film is a cure for the hangover that followed, and a reminder that a new political force emerged on those campuses.
UNCOUNTED is an explosive new documentary that shows how the election fraud that changed the outcome of the 2004 election led to even greater fraud in 2006 and now looms as an unbridled threat to future elections.

The controversial feature-length film by Emmy award-winning director David Earnhardt examines in factual, logical, and yet startling terms how easy it is to change election outcomes and undermine election integrity across the U.S.

Beyond increasing the public’s awareness, UNCOUNTED inspires greater citizen involvement in fixing a broken electoral system. UNCOUNTED will change how you feel about the way votes are counted in America.

Features: whistleblowers Clint Curtis, Bruce Funk and Steve Heller; Rep. John Conyers; Steal This Vote author Andrew Gumbel; journalists Robert Koehler, Brad Friedman, Ian Hoffman, Robert Fitrakis and Harvey Wasserman; election integrity activists Bev Harris and Jonathan Simon; and inventor, the late Athan Gibbs.
Concerned that the real John McCain story was not being told, Robert Greenwald and his team at Brave New Films decided they HAD to do something about it, so they did some extensive research on his flip-flopping.

The result is a series of short films laying bare the fallacy of the “straight-talk” label that has been attached to McCain like a Siamese Twin for the better part of a decade.

The results have been truly spectacular, entering record-breaking territory. Within a week of its debut on the web over 1 million people viewed “The Real McCain 2.” It’s been the #1 most viewed video on YouTube, #1 on the viral video chart, and the #2 story on the Digg Election 2008 page. Brave New Films is now reaching an audience that most cable news shows only dream of.

This DVD compiles the shorts and adds exclusive on-camera instruction and commentary from key progressive leaders including MoveOn’s Eli Pariser, Democracy For America’s Jim Dean and Greenwald himself. They show the viewer how to use these short films to maximum effect.

Contains 11 highly persuasive shorts with commentary on how to use each one to win on the topic by a proven leader in progressive politics:

1. McCain’s YouTube Problem
2. What ABC didn’t ask McCain
3. Why Won’t McCain Sign the GI Bill?
4. John McCain’s chart-topping single “Bomb Iran”
5. What is this “Iraq War” charge on my bill?
6. John McCain vs. John McCain
7. McCain’s Spiritual Guide
8. Johnny loves Georgie aka John McBush
9. Why do women give McCain a Zero?
10. Making of McCain’s Spiritual Guide
11. Big Oil Fuels the Straight Talk Express

911 Mysteries is a careful deconstruction of the official story set alongside clean, clear science. It is ninety-minutes of pure demolition evidence and analysis, laced with eye-opening witness testimonials.
TERRORSTORM 2nd Edition  A History of Government Sponsored Terrorism
Produced and Directed by Alex Jones
DVD • DIS039 • 130 MINS + 66 MINS • Documentary: Current Affairs / Political Science

In this UPDATED AND EXPANDED 2ND EDITION, Alex Jones—often credited as the father of the 9/11 Truth Movement—provides a riveting case of how throughout history, criminal elements inside governments have carried out terror attacks against their own populations as a pretext to control them.

ISLAM: WHAT THE WEST NEEDS TO KNOW
An examination of Islam, Violence, and the Fate of the Non-Muslim World
Produced and Directed by Gregory M. Davis and Bryan Daly
DVD • DIS038 • 98 MINS • Documentary: History / Religion

Through an examination of the Koran, other Islamic texts, and the example of the prophet Muhammad, this documentary argues, through a sober and methodical presentation, that violence against non-Muslims is and has always been an integral aspect of Islam.

Guerrilla ontologist. Quantum psychologist. Discordian Pope. Whatever the label and rank, Robert Anton Wilson is undeniably one of the foundations of 21st Century Western counterculture. This DVD is guaranteed to increase your brain size 2–3 inches!

Stupidity sets out to determine whether our culture is hooked on deliberate ignorance as a strategy for success. From the origins of IQ test and the word “moron,” to Adam Sandler and George W. Bush, Stupidity examines the “dumbing down” of contemporary culture.

Robert Greenwald takes on the largest retailer in the world in this explosive film. Go beyond the glitz of Wal-Mart’s TV commercials and into the real lives of workers and their families, business owners and their communities, in an extraordinary journey that will challenge the way you think, feel…and shop.

The Big Buy is a Texas noir political documentary that chronicles a maverick district attorney’s investigation into a “bloodless coup with cash” allegedly perpetrated by Tom DeLay, arguably the most powerful Congressman in American history. This film connects the dots between big money and big government—and it’s not a pretty picture.

A powerful documentary from executive producer Robert Greenwald which details the shocking way that the civil liberties of American citizens and immigrants alike have been infringed upon and curtailed since 9/11 and the USA PATRIOT Act.
OUTFOXED Rupert Murdoch’s War on Journalism
